Bibby Line Group Supply Chains

Group head office employs less than 40 people and procures products and services including facilities management, maintenance and cleaning, office equipment and supplies, utilities, communications, recruitment, management consultancy, legal and audit services. The qualifying subsidiaries procure a wide range of services and products to meet their business needs and these are listed within their individual statements.

Policies in relation to Slavery and Human Trafficking

All our suppliers are expected to comply with all national and local, relevant law and regulations. Where we become aware of any organisation that has been or is found to be knowingly involved in modern slavery we will cease to trade with that organisation. Other relevant BLG policies and procedures:

- BLG Procurement Policy;
- Recruitment Right to Work Checks;
- Bullying & Harassment policy;
- Whistleblowing Policy;
- Anti-Bribery & Corruption policy.

In addition, our qualifying subsidiaries each have their own policies and procedures in relation to Modern Slavery – please review the individual statements.

Due Diligence

The potential risks of an inadvertent breach of the principles espoused in this statement are managed through our corporate risk framework, based on the “3 levels of defence” approach.

Bibby Line Group requires its qualifying subsidiaries to comply with the Modern Slavery Act, and therefore subsidiary statements are reviewed by their relevant subsidiary Board and signed off by a director. The level and extent of due diligence carried out is as appropriate to the qualifying subsidiaries, and is detailed in their individual statements

Any incidents or breaches of the Act would be notified to the respective Boards through the risk management process. We have no recorded incidents of our own, or suppliers’, breaching of the Act.

As part of our commitment to monitor and reduce the risk of slavery and human trafficking from within our organisation and from those businesses with which we interact we have adopted the following due diligence procedures:

- We work closely with our supply chains to ensure compliance with legislative obligations and we expect those organisations to have suitable anti-slavery and human trafficking policies and processes.
- We seek to build long standing relationships with suppliers and to make clear our expectations of ethical business behaviour from them.
- We have in place systems to encourage the reporting of concerns and the protection of whistle blowers.
- We expect a level of due diligence carried out across the qualifying subsidiaries, and require them to detail it in their individual statements.

Next Steps

Bibby Line Group will continue to monitor best practice in this area as it develops and seeks to implement any necessary changes. We will invest and implement relevant training, processes and procedures where appropriate and will also ensure appropriate levels of risk awareness in respect of modern slavery and human trafficking is communicated to all our colleagues.

Validation

This statement is made in relation to the UK Modern Slavery Act 2015, Section 54 and constitutes Bibby Line Group Limited and its subsidiaries' slavery and human trafficking transparency statement for the financial year ending 31st December 2017.
